

Different Types of Speakers in the Classroom

Good
Brave
Witty
Relaxed
Eloquent
Interesting
Believable
Trustworthy
Natural
Spontaneous
Well-rehearsed
Gifted
Effective

Shy
Nervous
Fidgety
Quiet
Embarrassed
Average
Confused
Indifferent
Distant
Untrustworthy
Incoherent
Inarticulate
Careless

Excellent
★ Powerful
Enthusiastic
Articulate
Inspirational ★
Motivational
Brilliant
Passionate
Fiery
★ Authentic
Persuasive
Engaging
Confident

Fearful
Frightened
Vulnerable
Emotionless
Crude
Offensive
Vacuous
Mindless
Unintelligible
Muddled
Anxious Unremarkable
Lousy

How to Use Polite Language in the Classroom

GREETINGS

- ✓ Good morning, teacher. How are you today?
- ✓ Good afternoon, George. How are you feeling today?
- ✓ Hi Mary! I'm so happy to see you. You've been absent for a week.
- ✓ Hello, everybody. I'm very excited to start the lesson today.
- ✓ What's up guys?

INTERACTING WITH OTHERS

- ✓ Thank you, that's very kind of you.
- ✓ Thanks, that's very nice of you.
- ✓ I'm sorry to be late.
- ✓ I am sorry, I was unable to do the homework yesterday, but I will do it today.
- ✓ No, thank you. I am doing something else this afternoon.
- ✓ No, thanks. That was nice anyway.

ASKING FOR SOMETHING

- ✓ Can I borrow your pencil, please?
- ✓ Can you give me back my pencil, please?
- ✓ Could you have a look at these exercises, please?
- ✓ May I go to the toilet, teacher?
- ✓ Can I open the window?
- ✓ I would like to write today's date on the board.

SAYING GOODBYE

- ✓ Goodbye, everyone. See you tomorrow.
- ✓ Goodbye, until later!
- ✓ Bye!
- ✓ Bye-bye! It was nice to see you today.
- ✓ See you later!
- ✓ Have a nice day.
- ✓ See you!